

The Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,
Superintendent's Office.

June 17 1893

Hon. Conrad A. Jordan

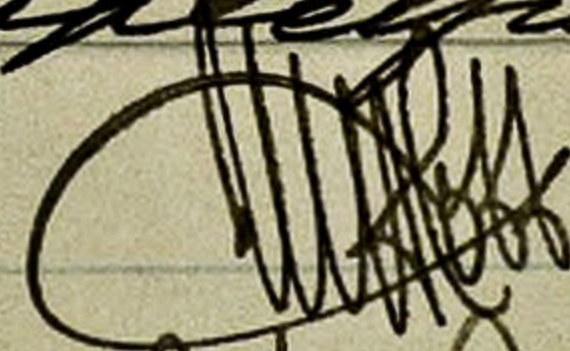

Asst. Treasurer U.S. New York

Sir:-

I will thank you if you will have your shipping and receiving clerks loosen the upper hoop of specie kegs sent from this mint so as to preserve
the heads for return with kegs.

By lifting the upper hoops a little the heads will fall in, intact.

Very Respectfully,

Acting Superintendent

X June 18/93

The above method of "opening kegs" is always followed by this division & consequently "heads" never go astray.
W. L. Mason Chf of Div

1081

P 805

Mint of the U. S. at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

in this respect, it was unintentional. If you know anything to the contrary, please advise me.

M. F. Muhlman
Acting Assistant Treasurer U.S.

O. C. BOSBYSELL*Superintendent.SUBJECT:

Requesting the preservation of the heads of specie kegs.

Office of
ASSISTANT TREASURER U.S.,
New York, N. Y., June 19, 1893.

Respectfully returned to the Acting Superintendent of the Mint of the United States, Philadelphia, Pa., and his attention directed to the note at the foot, from which he will see that it is the rule to open kegs in such a way as to preserve the heads. Evidently if there has been dereliction in

No. of Inclosures,

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 182

The Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,
Superintendent's Office,
June 17, 1893

Hon. Conrad N. Jordan
Asst. Treasurer U.S. New York

Sir: -

I will thank you if you will have your shipping and receiving clerks loosen the supper hoop of specie kegs sent from this mint to as to preserve the heads for return with kegs.

By lifting the supper hoops a little the heads will fall in, intact.

Very Respectfully,
M.H. Cobb
Acting Superintendent

X [Illegible] 6/19/93

The above method of "opening Kegs" is above followed by the division = frequently "heads" never go astray".

Wager Chf. Of Dn.

[Typed note on back of letter:]

Office of Assistant Treasurer U.S.,
New York, N.Y.,
June 19, 1893

Respectfully returned to the Acting Superintendent of the Mint of the United States, Philadelphia, Pa., and his attention directed to the note at the foot, from which he will see that it is the rule to open kegs in such a way as to preserve the heads. Evidently if there has been dereliction in this respect, it was unintentional. If you know anything to the contrary, please advise me.

M.C. Muhleman
Acting Assistant Treasurer U.S.